OUR FOUNDATIONAL SCRIPTURE

I Thessalonians 5:17

reminds us to pray without ceasing. To remain spiritually fit, remember that there's power when we rise early, seek Him first, and walk boldly in His truth.

(Inspired by Mark 1:35 & Ephesians 5:15)

Whether you're reading with your morning coffee or pausing midday to reset your soul, know this: you're not alone.

You're part of a growing community of warriors who kneel before the King and rise ready to conquer with His strength.

Let's grow together in faith, truth, and prayer.

STRENGTH IN THE STRUGGLE

"Consider it pure joy, my brothers and sisters, whenever you face trials of many kinds, because you know that the testing of your faith produces perseverance." - James 1:2-3

Trials aren't something we typically welcome. They come uninvited—through sickness, loss, heartbreak, uncertainty, or weariness. And yet, James encourages us to meet these struggles with joy—not because they feel good, but because they do good.

God doesn't waste our pain or shy away from us questioning why we must go through so much heartache. Each trial is like resistance training for our faith. It stretches us, strengthens our trust in God, and shapes us into people who don't quit when things get hard.

DIVINE HIGHLIGHTS

The book signing for Kneeling at the Throne was a huge success! We had a full house filled with friends, family, great food, and music that ministered to the soul. Special thanks to the Seed of Faith Ministries in Salem, Oregon, Let There Be Editing, and Kadosh Media!

Joy doesn't mean pretending things are perfect or living under the superficial happiness the world presents. It means choosing to believe that God is working through the imperfect, painful places. It's the quiet strength that says, "I don't see the way out yet, but I trust the One who does."

So if you're walking through a difficult time, hold on. You're not being crushed—you're being cultivated. The endurance being formed in you will carry you further than you ever imagined.

Divine reflection:

- What trial are you currently facing, and how can you shift your mindset from frustration to endurance?
- Take 5 minutes today to reflect on how God might be using this moment to strengthen your character or deepen your trust.

Prayer

Lord, thank You that my trials are not wasted. Help me to endure with faith, trusting that You are producing something beautiful and strong within me. Teach me to embrace the joy that surpasses worldly understanding—even in the struggle—knowing that You are near and that You're building perseverance in my heart. In Jesus' name, Amen.
