GIVING THANKS IN EVERY SEASON

“Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles. And let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us.” – Hebrews 12:1

November traditionally turns our hearts toward gratitude, but giving thanks isn't always easy—especially in the midst of hardship. Psalm 107 reminds us of a powerful truth: God's goodness and steadfast love never change, no matter our circumstances.

The psalm was written as a song of thanksgiving from people who had been rescued from distress—wandering in deserts, sitting in darkness, even facing storms at sea. Each time they cried out, God delivered them. Their gratitude wasn't based on comfort, but on the unshakable character of God.

When life feels heavy and looks hopeless, gratitude becomes an act of faith. Choosing to thank God in the storm is declaring: “Lord, I trust You. I believe Your love will carry me through.” Gratitude shifts our perspective from what we've lost to the One who is with us, and that is where peace begins to grow.

This November, let's remember: thanksgiving isn't reserved for easy days—it's our lifeline in hard ones.

The Intercessor's Corner

WELCOME TO THE INTERCESSOR'S CORNER, A SACRED SPACE WHERE YOUR REAL-LIFE QUESTIONS ARE MET WITH BIBLICAL INSIGHT AND SPIRIT-LED WISDOM. WHETHER YOU'RE SEEKING BREAKTHROUGH, UNDERSTANDING, OR DEEPER COMMUNION WITH GOD, WE KNEEL TOGETHER AT THE THRONE AND LET HIS WORD GUIDE OUR RESPONSE.

Gratitude That Heals: Learning to Give Thanks in All Seasons

Scriptural Context:

“Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good; His love endures forever.” – Psalm 107:1

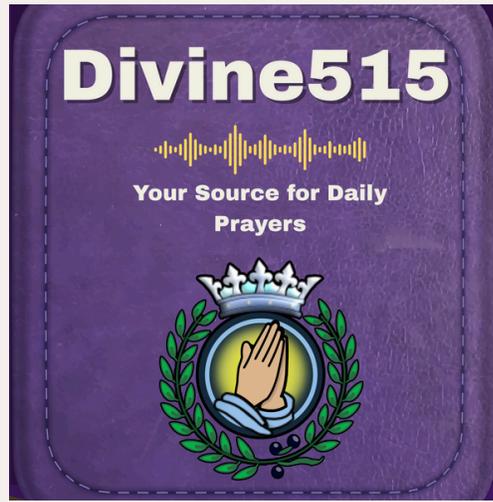

When hardship comes, our natural response is often frustration, bitterness, or anger. While anger itself is not always sinful, holding onto it can poison our hearts. Unresolved anger and cripple us in the following ways:

- Clouds our ability to see God's goodness.
- Keeps us focused on the problem instead of the Provider.
- Blocks peace and invites division into our relationships.

Gratitude, on the other hand, disarms anger. When we thank God, we release the resentment and open ourselves to His healing presence.
