HAPPY HOLIDAYS

HERE'S A GIFT TO SAY THANK YOU!

THE INDESCRIBABLE GIFT: A HEART OF GRATITUDE

“Thanks be to God for His indescribable gift!” – 2 Corinthians 9:15

As December unfolds, our hearts turn toward giving and gratitude. But before we wrap a single gift, Scripture reminds us that Jesus Christ is our greatest gift. Paul calls Him “the indescribable gift” because no words can capture the depth of God’s love displayed through His Son.

Through Jesus, we received forgiveness, grace, and eternal life—gifts we could never earn. His birth brought light into a dark world, and His presence still transforms hearts today. When we reflect on this truth, we realize that this holiday season is more than a celebration—it's an invitation. An invitation to receive, to rest, and to rejoice in the One who gave Himself for us.

This season, let your gratitude overflow. Instead of focusing on the material gifts, focus on the Father who gave His indescribable gift.

The Gift That Keeps on Giving: God's Love in Motion

Scriptural Context:

"Thanks be to God for His indescribable gift!" – 2 Corinthians 9:15

As December unfolds, we're reminded of the power found in giving and gratitude—acts that not only bless others but also reflect the generous heart of God. Scripture reminds us of the greatest gift ever given—our Savior, Jesus Christ. The Apostle Paul calls Him "the indescribable gift" because no language on earth can fully express the magnitude of God's love revealed through His Son.

PRAYING SCRIPTURE WITH PURPOSE

In the episode titled “Praying Scripture with Purpose,” host Valarie Rocha welcomes listeners to the Intercessor’s Corner, where she discusses the topic of praying scripture in context. She begins by posing the question of how scriptures can be used effectively in prayer. Valarie references Isaiah 55:10, illustrating that God’s word is purposeful and something that yields results, much like rain nourishing the earth. She supports this point with Hebrews 4:12, emphasizing that the word of God is alive, active, and discerns the thoughts of the heart..
